

PUTS TARIFF ISSUES IN BACKGROUND

Walter L. Fisher Gives Development of Natural Resources Importance

ADDRESSES CHICAGO MEN

Says Public Interests Can Yet be Properly Protected Under Wise Legislation

CONGRESS IS RESPONSIBLE

CHICAGO, MARCH 8.—The problem of tariffs and the trusts may seem more important and more pressing but more vital than these of the future welfare of this country is the right solution of the fundamental economic and political issues involved in the development and control of our natural resources, and especially of the sources of mechanical power, Walter L. Fisher, former secretary of the Interior said in an address before the Commercial Club tonight. "We have lost effective control of many of these resources—coal, oil and water power. With those that remain we must not repeat the errors of the past. Under legislation enacted soon the public interests can yet be properly conserved and protected. Classifying Public Lands Important.

"The most important work of the Geological survey has become the classification of public lands so that they may be opened for development and use under appropriate legislation. It is the almost total lack of such legislation that prevents the real difficulties in the way of constructive conservation of the natural resources of the nation. The responsibility for this situation rests squarely upon congress, from official and unofficial sources, but the combined opposition of radicals and reactionaries has thus far prevented action. Public lands can be withdrawn for classification and when classified they cannot be restored to entry under any laws which will promote development and at the same time protect the public interest. This point cannot be too strongly emphasized. "What it is important to have the public to understand is that such legislation is not written in the statute books. To day the protection of the public interests in these vital matters depends almost entirely upon departmental regulations established by the executive heads of the departments of the Interior and of agriculture with respect to the public domain, and by the secretary of war with respect of navigable rivers. If these regulations do not fully encourage development and protect the investor, if they do not adequately protect the public interests it is because of inadequate laws and in spite of repeated concrete suggestions of remedial legislation.

"Until last year even the withdrawal act, under which our public lands are withdrawn for classification, did not protect water power sites against entries under the mining laws. The result was that many important water-power sites were plastered with bogus mining claims.

Development Under Revocable Permits.

"Power sites can be developed only under revocable permits, which contain appropriate terms and conditions to protect the public interest and which furnished most unsatisfactory and inadequate security for the investor. The secret of this situation is that congress has been unwilling to adopt the conservative suggestion that have been made to it although showing by its inaction that it is not willing or is unable to devise conservative measures of its own. Meanwhile the enemies of any effective conservation are falsely charging that policy with the consequence of delay.

"It is time that the truth were known and that congress shall be forced to act so that the store houses of the nation may be opened and opened in the right way. The new administration has here its opportunity and its obligation. I am hopeful that it will seize the one and meet the other. The record of the new secretary of the Interior as a member of the inter-state commerce commission justifies the expectation that he will be progressive and conservative.

Mr. Fisher mentioned former President Taft's support to every suggestion of constructive conservative measures and said that his "vigorous veto of the Coosa River Dam bill is a landmark on the road to a correct waterway policy.

REFUSES TO DISCUSS GOVERNMENT COMPROMISE

Chicago, March 8.—Franklin MacVeagh, former secretary of the treasury arrived from Washington to day. He said he would not discuss at present the government's compromise in the oleomargarine cases or a report of a compromise involving import regulations.

"My ruling in the oleomargarine case I believe, was sound and I see no reason to change that ruling if I were called upon to do so," said Mr. MacVeagh. "I am going to think the subject over for 24 hours and then if I deem a statement is called for, I will make one in writing."

JURY DISAGREES IN SECOND DARROW TRIAL

DEFENDANT'S DEMAND FOR NEW HEARING GRANTED

Re-trial Will Begin March 31.—Prosecution Admittedly Disappointed at Result—Darrow Seemed Relieved.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., MARCH 8.—Clarence S. Darrow's second trial on a jury bribery charge ended to day in a disagreement of the jury. Eight jurors were for conviction; four held out for acquittal. Darrow immediately demanded a new trial and District Attorney John D. Frederick said he would have one. Judge W. M. Conley of Madera county, who presided, set March 31st as the date for the beginning of the re-trial.

Darrow Seemed Relieved. The failure of the jury to agree was received with varied emotions by defense and prosecution. Darrow himself, nervous under strain of waiting thirty-eight and a half hours for the jury to report seemed to regard the disagreement as a relief. He even smiled when making brief arguments in favor of his demand for a new trial.

He met reports that the prosecution might not press the case again with the declaration that he would not rest content with freedom, his character smirched by the "not proved" character of the result to day.

Prosecution Disappointed. The prosecution, admittedly, was disappointed. W. J. Ford assistant district attorney declared he would not participate in a re-trial of the case as he felt that conviction was impossible after the failure in the trial just closed.

Incidentally Ford made known his intention to resign, but said this decision was not due to the outcome of the Darrow trial.

Darrow's friends flocked about him, grasped his hands, sympathized with him over his failure to obtain an acquittal and expressed the belief that his third trial would end as he desired.

Darrow's second trial occupied forty eight days—a little more than half the time consumed by the first, which ended in an acquittal after the jurors had deliberated thirty three minutes.

In both cases the allegations were substantially the same, except that in the one George N. Lockwood, a prospective juror, was alleged to have been bribed in the second. Robert Bain a sworn juror in the McNamara case was the recipient of money paid by Bert H. Franklin who in his confession alleged that he was acting under the direction of Darrow.

Plan To Recall Frederick. A. J. Mooney, secretary of the Los Angeles Building Trades Council announced tonight that plans were being perfected to attempt to recall of District Attorney John D. Frederick because of his attitude toward Union Labor and Clarence S. Darrow. Mooney said the Los Angeles county federal council was co-operating with his own organization.

"Petitions for a recall election are being prepared," said Mooney "and will be circulated throughout the county within a few days."

He explained that Captain Frederick, before his last election had promised a "square deal to the workingmen" but that since the election he had "double-crossed" them.

"His action in forcing the second trial of Clarence Darrow caused us to decide on the recall movement," he said.

THREE AMERICAN SOLDIERS KILLED AT NICARAGUA

Soldiers Die in Wreck Which Results
From Operations of Drunken Raiders.

Washington, March 8.—Sergeant Charles A. Norton, corporal Theodore D. Roberts and Private Ernest Johnson, of the Marine Corps killed at Managua, Nicaragua were killed and Captain Edmund A. Green and several marines were injured but not seriously in a railroad collision between Managua and Leon. The accident occurred as the indirect result of the operations of a band of lawless, drunken raiders who entered the town of Nagarote Thursday night, routed the police and looted the town. They fled to the hills after cutting the telegraph and telephone wires to make sure that the American legation's line of communication with the American guardship at Corinto was interrupted.

After conference with minister Wetzel, Captain Green started down the road yesterday morning on a special train. A fuel train loaded with gasoline followed and without flagmen collided with the special carrying the marines 12 miles west of Managua. In addition to the casualties among the marines the firemen on the fuel train were killed and two brakemen injured. Sergeant Charles A. Norton was from Newark, N. J.; Corporal Theodore D. Roberts was from Kansas City, Mo. His mother is Amanda Roberts of Shell City, Mo. Private Ernest Johnson was from Chicago.

Captain Edward A. Green was from Fort Gaines, Ga. His mother, Mrs. W. C. Green, lives there.

WILSON DISCUSSES LEGISLATIVE POLICY

President Also Talks With Cabinet Members About Appointments

RECEIVES MANY CALLERS

Work on Special Message Will be Commenced by President
This Week

TUMULTY MEETS NEWS-MEN

WASHINGTON, MARCH 8.—President Wilson divided his time today between discussion of prospective appointments with members of his cabinet and legislative policies with members of congress. He cleared his desk for the day at 4 p. m., and took a long automobile ride with Mrs. Wilson. Tonight the president sought recreation at the theatre where he occupied a box.

The president during the week received numerous callers and patiently listened to those who came in the interest of candidates for appointment but did not commit himself to any.

Tumulty Meets Correspondents. In the office adjacent to the president's, Secretary Joseph P. Tumulty today met half a hundred correspondents and told them that the policy of the administration would be one of utter frankness and candor. Thus far the new administration has done little besides getting physically organized. Next week, it is expected the members of the cabinet will begin with the president to formulate the new policies of the Wilson regime. The president, too, will begin work then on his special message. Though the president has not finally made up his mind on what he will recommend, his present intention to devote his message exclusively to the tariff, pointing out currency reform as the next legislative goal.

The president now has an opportunity to get into intimate communication with his cabinet advisers some of whom he had never met before inauguration day. He had heard by reputation about all these men but he had never met Attorney General McReynolds or Secretary Lane of the interior department. His meetings had been casual with Secretaries Wilson, Garrison and Houston.

Curious About Selections. Curiosity as to what impelled some of the selections brought the explanation from some of the president's friends that Mr. Wilson believed that both the war and interior departments should be managed by trained lawyers able to render constructive opinions.

"The Philippine problem and the administration of the canal zone, impelled Mr. Wilson it is known to pick Secretary Garrison because of his long experience on the equity bench in New Jersey.

Diplomatic appointments still continue to occupy the center of attention of official Washington.

Olney Decided For England. Richard Olney has been decided upon for the ambassadorship to Great Britain and George W. Guthrie, Democratic state chairman of Pennsylvania is slated for the ambassadorship to Italy, but while the information comes from reliable authorities the arrangements for making the appointments have not reached the stage where definite announcements can be made.

The secret service men have had little trouble with intruders, but today detained a woman who gave her name as Ellen Kelly and said she was from Philadelphia. She declared some one owed her $50,000 and she wanted President Wilson to help her collect it. She was sent to the Washington asylum for observation.

POPE'S ILLNESS INSIGNIFICANT.

Rome, March 8.—The Vatican announces that the indisposition from which Pope Pius is suffering is insignificant. The "Osservatore Romano", the Vatican organ, publishes the following announcement: "The Holy Father, being indisposed from a slight attack of grippe and catarrh the usual audiences have been suspended."

Although it is expected that His Holiness will be able to resume audiences within a week, it is feared that his indisposition will interfere to some extent with the Easter celebrations, at which time it is customary to admit children to receive their first communion from the hands of the Pontiff.

OBTAIN JURY IN ALASKAN FRAUDS CASE.

Chicago, March 8.—A jury was obtained in United States District Judge Landis court to day to try the five defendants in the Alaskan land fraud cases. The jurors were placed in the custody of deputy marshals to be guarded until discharged.

B. B. Townsend, special assistant to the attorney general will make the opening statement in the case on Monday morning. It is expected that first testimony will be heard on Wednesday.

FIRST BATTLE OF SONORA REBELLION

Seven Federals are Killed and Many are Wounded at Nacozari

AMERICAN IS WOUNDED

Mine Manager Shot in Leg—
Rebel Reinforcements
Meet Rural Guards

BATTLE CONTINUES ALL DAY

DOUGLAS, ARIZ., MARCH 8.—Seven federal soldiers were killed in the first battle of the Sonora rebellion at Nacozari, below here today, and one American, J. S. Williams, Jr., manager of the Montezuma Copper company, was shot in the leg. It is believed that many of the federal defenders were wounded. Constitutionalists sustained no apparent loss and succeeded in advancing their lines considerably. The battle began at 8:30 this morning and was still in progress at 3:45 this afternoon when all communication from Nacozari was interrupted. The fight was precipitated when a force of 500 rebels under Col. Bracamonte, former prefecto of Montezuma, was marching to reinforce the rebel command which is encamped on the outskirts of Agua Prieta, encountered part of the federal garrison of twenty rurales protecting the town.

Most of the fighting was done at long range, though after first hour the rebels began to draw in closer about the little town. The rebels made no move against Agua Prieta today, but it is reported an attack had been planned by the rebel commander some time after midnight or early Sunday morning.

Agua Prieta and Douglas are divided only by the imaginary line and much apprehension is felt here for the safety of Douglas residents in event of the expected battle.

Chihuahua Forces Rallying.

El Paso, Texas, March 8.—With the revolt against the Huerta government progressing rapidly in Sonora, the former Maderistas of Chihuahua are rallying to the war cry of Constitutionalism. The new rebels yesterday destroyed the Mexican Central railway between Chihuahua City and Rosalia, effectually stopping traffic on the government railway between Mexico City and the border. The Mexican Northwestern railway has been destroyed again below Juarez. No material movement of Huerta troops against the Constitutionalists is reported in the state of Durango.

Will Probe Conditions.

General T. H. Bliss, commander of the newly organized Southern department, began an investigation of conditions along the Sonora border. It was said that General Bliss is to make an investigation of the revolt of the Sonora state troops against the Huerta national government on behalf of the war department.

To Rescue Americans.

Nogales, Ariz., March 8.—To rescue Americans stranded at interior points, three automobiles left here today for the south. They were sent in response to urgent appeals from Magdalena, fifty miles below the border. The Americans were passengers on northbound trains seized by the rebel troops. It is reported that Juan Gabriel's rebels intend to attack Nogales, Sonora.

Quarantines Mexico City.

Washington, March 8.—Self-appointed peace commissioners who talked in their attempts to hold a conference on American soil for the adjustment of the differences between rival Mexican factions, are now enroute to Mexico City, Consul Edwards at Juarez, Mexico, reports. The situation there is undisturbed, he says, but bridges on the Northwestern railroad severing miles to the south have been destroyed and there is no telegraph service between Juarez and Mexico City.

Volunteers Arrive.

Laredo, Texas, March 8.—Eight hundred volunteers from Chihuahua, commanded by Colonel Rosendo Hernandez and other Mexican chiefs, have arrived at Serra Mojada, Coahuila, to fight under the Carranza banner, according to advices received here tonight from Ciudad Portillo Diaz.

Serious Clash Reported.

Mexico City, March 8.—The first serious clash between federals and Carranzistas is reported today to have occurred at Reata, in the state of Coahuila, about midway between Monterey and Monclova. The engagement lasted four hours, the rebels offering stubborn resistance.

The losses as reported from government sources include twenty-six federals killed and eleven wounded and thirty-three rebels killed. The rebel forces have fallen back on Bajon, thirty miles to the north. Another engagement is looked for soon as the federals are advancing and endeavoring to follow up their advantage. Only the most meagre details of the battle have been received.

In order to prevent clashes between rebels and the American troops the Mexican war department proposes to send 6,000 federals to occupy the border towns in Sonora. To this end it is probable that the government will ask the administration

TELLS OF EFFORTS TO WRECK TRAINS

DETECTIVE TESTIFIES AGAINST THE KANAWHA MINERS

Had Spent Five Months in Coal Fields Gathering Evidence Against Miners Who Used and Advocated Violence in Strike.

Charleston, W. Va., March 8.—That efforts were made to kill, wreck trains conveying soldiers to the Kanawha coal strike region and to destroy property was the testimony today of Frank C. Smith, detective at the trial before the military commission of 49 persons charged with conspiracy during the recent riots in the coal fields. Smith stated that he had spent five months in the mining region representing himself as organizer or as an employee of an electric company. During his testimony he named persons and incidents without hesitancy and frequently when he pointed to some of the defendants he secured a bow of recognition of the truth of his statements. Only once did anyone question his testimony and that was when Smith named one of the defendants as being with him on their march from a camp at Holley Grove to Hansford, for the alleged purpose of "dynamiting" a train carrying soldiers.

The defendant declared he was a hundred yards beyond Smith in the march. On another occasion he pointed out John P. Brown as the man who saved his life at Hansford when an armed crowd while waiting for a troop train became suspicious of the detective.

According to Smith armed men at Holley Grove on February 10th, informed him that they had been waiting for three days for an opportunity to "wreck and shoot up" the train on which soldiers were being sent to the strike district. He said that on the night of January 28th, he was at Cheylan and heard "Mother" Jones tell the miners "they had a yellow streak in their backbones and ought to be beaten up by the mine guards for not resisting with all their might."

Smith was not permitted to testify against persons not on trial at this time. He had not finished his statement when court adjourned and will resume it on Monday.

NEWTON ARRESTED ON SWINDLING CHARGE

Charge of Conspiracy to Defraud Wealthy Physician of $115,000 is Made Against Him.

London, March 8.—Arthur Newton, the lawyer who came into the limelight during the trial of Dr. Crippen for murder in connection with which he was subsequently suspended from practice, was today brought up at Bow street police court on the charge of conspiracy to defraud Dr. Hans Thorsch, a wealthy young physician of Vienna. The sum involved was $115,000.

The magistrate in remanding the accused, described the case as "a swindle" and imposed the heavy bail of $50,000.

Alongside Newton in the prisoner's enclosure stood Berkeley Bennett, a land agent whom the magistrate refused bail. A warrant has also been issued in the same connection for a third party who calls himself Count Ander Festetics and is a Hungarian nobleman.

Senator Beal of Alton, a member of the commission, accented, but when he entered the store he walked through aisle after aisle like a grenadier, looking neither to the right nor left. When safe in Hillman's office the senator said he was joking about taking a look at the girls.

Calis Quiz a Revival.

"It was like going to an old-fashioned revival," was the way Mr. Hillman put it. "A busy man gets careless, some times. He is busy making money. I always thought we did everything under the sun for our people, but the revival, so to call it, gave me some ideas of responsibility I never dreamed of before. I wouldn't have missed it for a thousand dollars."

Hillman was the first witness of the day and testified in a bluff and hearty manner. His saleswomen, he said, receive an average of $3.17 a week, although there are some errand girls who receive as low as $3.

When asked as to the moral standards of the girls in his store Hillman said they "sized up pretty good" but invited the commissioners to "size them up for themselves."

Senator Beal of Alton, a member of the commission, accented, but when he entered the store he walked through aisle after aisle like a grenadier, looking neither to the right nor left. When safe in Hillman's office the senator said he was joking about taking a look at the girls.

SWAMPED WITH APPLICATIONS.

DRASTIC REGULATION

Pierre, S. D., March 8.—The South Dakota legislature just before the final adjournment of the session to day passed a bill providing that only one saloon license may be issued to each 600 inhabitants with the exception that two saloons are permitted in each town regardless of size. The bill will become a law as soon as signed by the governor. It will force one fourth of the existing saloons in the state out of business.

OF SALOON BUSINESS.

A plan is afoot to reorganize the army, increasing its strength to 100,000 men, and it is also proposed to place an order for 150 cannon, in France.

The government quickly apprehended a riot of factory employees at Santa Rosa in the state of Vera Cruz. Amelino Mendoza, a Maderista leader, and several other agitators, were killed.

PEORIA HIGH WINS CONTEST

DEFEATS J. H. S. BY SCORE OF 31 TO 30.

Fans Witness Fast and Exciting Game and Visitors Annex Contest in Last Minute of Play—Score of the Teams.

The last minute of play in the basketball game last night proved fatal to Jacksonville high when a member of the Peoria high school quietly threw a field basket, making the score 31 to 30 in favor of the visitors. It was one of the fastest contests ever witnessed on the local floor, with both squads going at a high rate of speed. In the first half Jacksonville appeared stronger, starting the game with three field throws and exhibiting some good guarding. The score at the end of the half was 23 to 14 in favor of the locals.

When the second half started Peoria took a brace and succeeded in tying the score, both teams gaining their points on the large number of fouls that were called. As the second half waned J. H. S. began to play fast and soon forged ahead of their opponents by a point or two. The last few minutes of play were as strenuous as the fans ever wished for and when Jacksonville gained a lead of one point the applause was so loud that it was nigh impossible to hear the referee's whistle. When the fatal moment came for J. H. S. a Peoria man stood not far from goal and as the ball was being fought for in the middle of the floor, a visitor nabbed the sphere and quickly passed it to his teammate who made a pretty basket and before the ball could be started again time was called. It was a hard game for the locals to lose, but was one of those contests that could be called anybody's, so close was the score. Frye starred for the locals getting six field baskets. Reichardt played the most consistent for Peoria while Hart put up a good game. L. Neumiller was an adept in throwing foul baskets. Coach Buland referred the first half and Coach Crum of Peoria the second half. There was considerable dissatisfaction expressed by the fans and players because of the fact that the coaches were allowed to referee and it is safe to say that it will not occur again on the local floor. The score:

NEW PLAT BOOK FOR MORGAN COUNTY.

The Caldwell & Nelson Engineering company, local engineers, have completed a set of drawings for Morgan county, which they are now arranging for publication in a plat book. The publication is to include detailed charts of each township in the county, indicating all farms, the acreage and names of the owners, and also plats of all towns in the county, including a special large plat of Jacksonville. The work comes out as the only publication of the kind in the county, as previous plat books have passed out of existence with lapse of time. It should be met with the support of a large number of citizens throughout the county, as there is need for a work of this kind that may be relied upon.

PUBLIC LIBRARY HAS SEVERAL ARTICLES ON MILK QUESTION

Residents Are Given Opportunity to Follow up Lecture by Dr. Hecktoen.

Since the lecture last evening by Dr. Ludvig Hecktoen, on "Diseases Caused By Impure Milk," many will no doubt want to follow the subject. The following articles on this question are at the public library:

Will Any Milk Do?—Harper's Weekly, February 8, 1913.

It has become sadly proven in recent years that while milk may be the cheapest food it is sometimes the most dangerous, the danger always being due to foreign substances getting into the milk. The many epidemics of typhoid fever, scarlet fever, and diphtheria, the thousands of cases of tuberculosis, infectious sore throats that have been traced to the milk supply have proved the need of guarding this product. These dangers are all due to the contamination of milk with something from without and are the result of carelessness in handling this product.

"Over fifty thousand unnecessary deaths of infants occur annually in the United States. The change must come."

Morbidity and Infectious Milk. Charities, volume 16, pages 502-4.

"Few countries until recently have deemed it necessary to do more than prevent adulteration of milk. Some legislators appear to think that as long as the milk is not skimmed or watered we need not worry about the germs we eat or drink. This may be a pleasing reflection to persons who do not know that such hydra-headed diseases as scarlet fever, diphtheria and cholera infantum have been disseminated in the milk supply, that typhoid fever epidemics have been thus caused, and that milk may be the vehicle of other infectious diseases."

"Next to polluted water there is probably no more prolific source of infectious diseases than contaminated milk. Polluted milk continues without effective check to play its part in causing periodic epidemics of typhoid, scarlet fever, diphtheria, diarrhoea, and other infectious diseases."

"But in the District of Columbia scarlet fever and diphtheria decreased under the above mentioned campaign against milk contamination."

HAD SERVED IN MINISTRY MORE THAN FORTY YEARS

Mention was made recently that L. O. Vaughn had been summoned to Lebanon, Ind., because of the sudden death of his aged father. Mr. Vaughn returned to Jacksonville last night. A dispatch from Lebanon to the Indianapolis News gave the following facts concerning the death:

"The Rev. Granville Jasper Vaughn, age seventy-seven, one of the best known members of the northwest Indiana conference of the M. E. church, died of heart trouble at his home here last night. He was a native of Somerset, Ky., and served as a member of company L, first Kentucky volunteers, attaining the position of first lieutenant."

"Mr. Vaughn entered the ministry in Kentucky in 1869, and became a member of the northwest Indiana conference in 1874. Among the places he has served are: Newton, Waveland, Hebron, Winamac, Keokuk, Wheeler, Clermont, Zionsville, Mace and Lucerne. He retired from the ministry in 1890, and has lived here since 1895. A widow and five children survive."

One of the improvements that could easily be brought about in our city, is the better maintenance and beautifying of Central park—in the center of the public square. In this the city commissioners and the Chamber of Commerce might well work together—the commissioners for the betterment of the entire city, might in their discretion use a greater amount of the park fund tax for Central park than they have heretofore, in making the park a meeting place for all gatherings, walks and seats could be arranged and police protection could be given to insure respectable people a safe place for a rest while waiting for trains or when they desire to recuperate under the shade of the trees. Make it a place for general use. More money can be taken from the general park fund to insure its cleanliness. One man with police powers could devote his time for caring for the place, keeping up flower beds and in maintaining order. It could be made a Central park in fact as well as name.

The pavilion could be easily adapted for a rest room, the upstairs part enclosed and made into two fine rooms with outside entrances, one for ladies and one for gentlemen, and stairways leading from the basement to the basement for separate toilet rooms could be installed, with all that the latest in sanitary plumbing could supply. The cost of installation would not be excessive and the place could be kept as clean and sanitary as such places are in private homes. And the city commissioners could do all this without one dollar's increase in taxation, a park fund tax already being imposed. Simply a more equitable division of this fund, giving the business district of Jacksonville what it should have.

Mayor George Davis and President Fount Andrews are both prominent in Elkhorn and should head the example set by a lodge of Elks in a small town recently visited. There they have an elegant building, and among the conveniences is a splendid toilet room, where a shower or any other kind of bath can be indulged in free—and each one supplied with a slot machine for towels, one cent in the slot and you are supplied with a clean, individual towel for your own use. The mayor, of course, might object to the use of any kind of a "slot machine," but the president could prevail upon him to install several of them for the use of the toilet rooms in Central park, where one could remove the soil and dust from hands and faces when they so desired. The shower bath will not be urged.

Then, again, in June, our new contract with the water company goes into effect. That will supply a great need in Central park—an abundant supply of pure, clean water. Water fit to drink. Just think of it, water that the city can have on tap at all times for the thirsty. And this is a dry town. Why not make a liberal use of that sparkling water, a display? The Central park rest and toilet rooms (in all that the name implies) could be used as an object lesson by President Andrews and the Chamber of Commerce in showing visitors and prospective investors how clean and sanitary such a place can be kept when a town has an unlimited supply of water, that has been filtered through miles of sand.

A strong inducement in nearly all lines of business enterprise seeking location will be that of water. It comes after we almost ceased hoping for it. Hope deferred had the usual result. We were dropping in to a decline. Those law suits were sapping our strength—and depicting the municipal pocketbook. Enough money has already been spent in litigation to have built a rest room that would have been the envy of all other cities. But happily that has ended. Now let us make the most of the good that the gods have sent us—advertise it in every way. And one of the best ads will be the liberal use of it in Central park. Make that place the beauty spot of a beautiful city. Its up to the mayor and the president and they are capable men.

While they are at it it might be well to use some of that water in Duncan park—that little beauty spot in the west part of the city. That place will need only the attention that it has had for the past few years and no extra expenditure of cash. Additional water could be used there profitably, however, to show the picnickers that it is really fit to drink.

There is a play ground in the First ward that has delighted many a youngster in the past year. Let the Boosters' club have something to say about that, let them aid the society in whose charge the ground has been placed. Let them call attention of visitors to what Jacksonville is doing in that way. Let them urge the purchase of more grounds for that purpose. There is a spot near down town, in the Third ward, which would make a beautiful park or play ground, and where with a supply of clean water, a magnificent swimming pool could be placed, using the water that flows to a connection with the sewage tainted Manuvalsterre.

Meanwhile you would be placing a part of the taxes collected where it would do the most good—near down town—where the business lines that make up the membership of the Chamber of Commerce are located.

That is the reason we have associated Mayor Davis and President Andrews, the head official of Jacksonville and the head of the organization of business men of the city. Each can exert a great influence that can only result in increased business, increased revenue, and increased prosperity in all lines—they and their associates.

We do not advise neglect of Nichols park—that will grow and become more beautiful and attractive as the years go by, but we do urge a more fair division of the park funds and the placing of the cash where it will benefit the greatest number of the citizens of Jacksonville. Nichols park is for the people who desire to take a day or half day off for recreation, and it is admirably adapted for this purpose, but the down town park, if kept properly, would be for use every hour, not only by city people, but by those from out of town.

Results are what every one desires. Let us not be idle. While waiting for outside and perhaps greater enterprises to turn up, why not see what a little effort can accomplish in the way of home improvement and home enterprise.

We should like to hear from Mayor Davis and President Andrews, the leaders of official and business Jacksonville.

In discussing the "white slave" traffic it was stated, at a meeting of the Federation of Labor, that conditions in Springfield were fully as bad as those in Chicago, and they, by resolution, urged the committee new at work in that city to take up the work in the capital city and pledge themselves to lend all the assistance possible to the work. Springfield has long had the reputation of being a "wide open" vice town, and it would be eminently proper for members of state legislature to investigate. Possibly they might find a condition that would startle many members—but they are a knowing lot.

Col. Frank L. Smith, of Dwight, U. S. internal revenue collector for this district, is said to have tendered his resignation to President Wilson. Mr. Smith was the campaign manager for ex-President Taft in this state, a loyal Republican. He is willing to turn over his job to a Democrat and then intends sailing for an extended trip in Europe.

At Governor Dunne's request over fifty resignations have been tendered him by Republicans holding responsible, lucrative positions in the service of the state, among them F. W. Potter, superintendent of insurance; Lawrence Y. Sherman, chairman of the state board of administration; the wardens of the penitentiaries, etc. Mr. Sherman is a candidate for United States senator, and an independent man, but it will take an earthquake to jar some of the old-timers loose from their places they have held so long. Four years from now many of them will be applicants under a Republican administration, but there may be a new generation to oppose their claims.

It is claimed, and truly, that an election of senators can only be reached by the bi-partisan route. That is true. But every Democrat and every Republican participating can point to the vote of a state-wide primary to justify his ballot—the will of the people expressed at the polls is a matter of record. There need be no suspicion of a deal brought about by corrupt methods. Every honest member of both parties can join the combination openly, without danger of an investigation as to the motive of his vote. The needs of the state and of the nation call for cessation of the juggling that has been the rule at Springfield throughout the session, and demand that the present so-called deadlock be ended.

The filing of the petition of Peter Megginson, Saturday, submitting his name to Republican voters at the coming primary as a candidate for county commissioner, is announced in another part of this paper. Mr. Megginson has served Morgan county for a number of years, acceptably and well. He is well known throughout the county as a fair, straightforward man. Peter Megginson's name is the synonym for honesty. There have been many problems met in his years of service in Morgan county, and he has not shirked. He is a conscientious man, conservative in all things and has made a splendid official in the past, deserving another term.

THE TAR BRUSH.

"The Progressive party must not permit itself to be tarred with the Lorimer brush." So says Mr. Theodore Roosevelt. The colored occasion hits the nail. He most certainly did at Springfield, last year, when he made his memorable speech at the capital city. At that time his anti-Lorimerism cry caught the people of this state in a truly receptive mood. That cry came at the right moment—many Republicans were waiting for a leader to voice the sentiment of the people, and to concentrate their feeling against politicians, some of them innocent of active participation in the Lorimer deal, but belonging to the Republican party—that had been badly smeared by the Lorimer tar. Mr. Roosevelt unified that sentiment, and the result was a Democratic victory last November, made possible by division in the Republican party—the result of the smear. The Democratic party was successful because of that division, although they even caught a great blot of the tar. The stain has been no upheaval in that party, as yet, to remove any part of it. They are still profiting by the alliance of two great "business" statesmen—men who are said to have enjoyed a "working" agreement for many years in the division of territory, and whose belief is that the city of Chicago owns the state—and all "good things" belong to the bi-partisan leaders. The Republican party has been punished and, we hope, learned something from the experience. There are yet a few men in the party who are endeavoring by the use of "tar soap" to remove the stains and be cleansed, but the experience has been a costly and bitter one. The Republican party is just now engaged in taking their medicine for the sins of the past, and it is convalescing. In a few years it will probably be as good as new. The trouble, however, seems to be at a critical stage with Democrats, and the Sullivan tar tub contains a large percentage of Democratic legislators.

THE LURE OF THE CITY.

The investigation of wages paid women by the large stores in Chicago, as affecting the "white slave" traffic, is one that will be of interest to many who have felt the lure of life in the city. All evidence shows that the weekly wages of a vast majority of women employees is very low—lower even than that paid in many country towns, where the cost of living is much less. It does not reflect credit on men posing as philanthropists when they are found to testify that with the enormous profits of their concerns, they give away millions, at the expense of poorly paid employees. The Globe-Democrat says that "Poverty is assigned by sociologists as chief cause of immorality and crime. Abolish poverty, they say, and crime would disappear and with it the worst features of immorality. This may be an optimistic view of the conditions, which would prevail in a social state where everybody had plenty to eat and to wear. It seems not too much to expect that those crimes and iniquities which result directly from the struggle for existence would disappear, but the Bible says that 'the human heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked.' If this be true crime and immorality would not disappear with the abolition of poverty. It is not absolute want so much as a desire to have more than one's earnings will buy which is the basis of a large part of crime and much of the white slave traffic. The desire for finer clothing, costlier pleasures, to make an appearance like those who have more money, combined with irresponsibility of habit and wastefulness are potent factors in driving both men and women across the border line of right. The roadhouses around large cities could tell another story than that of absolute poverty as the open door to white slavery. The penitentiary records could tell a like tale as to crime."

THE ART OF CORRECT DRESSCorsetry---a Modern Science

No. 1 in a series of talks on the Ways and Means of Attaining Correctness in Dress

Corseting has developed to such and extent with in the last few years it may now well be classed as a science. A perfect fitting corset imparts that chic, graceful appearance to the outer garment which characterizes a woman as being well groomed—and the ill-fitting corset necessarily the opposite. Those who are exacting in their dress requirements choose the corset first in the season's out-fit, and have all fitting done over this model. This is secret No. 1 in the art of correct dress—if you choose the right corset.

Makers of the American Lady Corset are noted for the exactness they have acquired in corseting. "A correct model for every figure" is their claim—which means "a perfect fitting outer garment for every wearer of American Lady Corsets". We have a complete line of this celebrated make and are awaiting an opportunity to demonstrate to you their many superior points. Begin the season right this year. Buy an American Lady Corset first—and read the article on the subject of correct dress as they appear from time to time.

We want you to visit our store this week while down town viewing the many pro-Easter displays now on exhibition in the business district

Committee Appointed to Perfect Plans at Meeting Held at Court House—Capital Stock to be $15,000.

In pursuance of a call recently issued, farmers and grain raisers from all sides of Jacksonville, met in the circuit court room Saturday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a farmers' elevator company.

A. C. Rice was appointed temporary chairman and Ralph Reynolds, temporary secretary. An intensely interesting address was given by J. A. McCreery of Mason City, late secretary of the Illinois Grain Dealers' association. He told of the development of the association from its infancy up to the present time and gave a large number of statistics and facts that were heard with much profit. A. C. Rice also made a brief talk on the benefits of a local elevator to the community and S. C. Shaw of Tallula addressed the assembly.

A motion was made and carried that a committee of five be appointed by the chairman for the purpose of perfecting an organization. He named the following: W. L. Leach, Ralph Reynolds, Michael S. Zachery, Stansfield Baldwin and Dr. J. W. Haingrove.

It was also voted that the par value of shares should be $100 and this was carried unanimously. It was also voted that the capital stock should be $15,000.

Rheumatic Blood is Whole Story

Wonderful Specific for Sciatica, Lumbago, and a Cure for Dreaded Articular Rheumatism.

There is a host of pills, powders, tablets and what not for rheumatism, but they all lack the first essential to being a natural medicine. To begin with, rheumatism is simply a name given to designate a variety of pains, and can only be reached by irrigating the entire blood supply with a naturally assimilative antidote. True, the pains may be eased with narcotics or the acids may be neutralized for the time being with other acids. But these merely temporize and do not even lead to a cure. There is but one standard rheumatism remedy, and it reflects the best thought of the day. It is prepared in the great Swift Laboratory in Atlanta, Ga., and sold in all drug stores under the name of S. S. S. at $1.00 a bottle.

Starvation has been advocated by many as a cure for rheumatism, and yet S. S. S. accomplishes in fact what faddists proclaim in theory and without the punishment of starvation. Not only does it assimilate just as naturally, just as specifically, and just as well ordained as the most acceptable, most palatable and most readily digested food. Do not fail to get a bottle of S. S. S. today. You will be astonished at the results. If your rheumatism is of such a nature that you would like to consult a great specialist confidentially, write to The Swift Specific Co., 127 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

GOOD BOUTS ARE SCARCE IN GOTHAM

WOEFUL SLUMP REPORTED IN CALIBRE OF CONTESTS STAGED.

Bombardier Wells and Gunboat Smith to Meet At Madison Square Garden Next Friday Night.

By James J. Corbett,
Former Heavy-weight Champion of the World.

(Written for Jacksonville Journal.)
With favorable laws on the statute books boxing in New York ought to be in a flourishing condition. Yet there has been a remarkable scarcity of first-class attractions at local clubs this winter. For some reason or other there has been a woeful slump in the calibre of contests. Evidently there is something radically wrong with the manner in which the game is conducted in this neck of the woods.

It was thought when the Frawley bill passed that a new era had dawned for pugilism and that a revival of the sport would follow that would rival the good old days of the Horton law. For a while the game did thrive but of late there has been a regular pugilistic famine—in so far as stars of the ring are concerned.

Some writers contend interest in boxing has waned and point to the fact that a number of smaller clubs have surrendered their licenses with the explanation that there is no profit in the promotion of the sport. But it is observed that whenever a promoter arranges a card that appeals to the sports the attendance is limited only by the seating capacity of his club. This indicates it is the dearth of good attractions that is responsible for the seeming lack of interest in local exhibitions of the manly art.

For example look over the cards offered the fans the coming week. At least fifteen clubs have arranged programs in the greater city and of the entire lot the only attractive looking match is the Bombardier Wells-Gunboat Smith exhibition at the garden Friday night. And I for one will not be greatly surprised if that develops into a one-sided affair. However, the fact that one of the contestants has shown ability of a high order is a guarantee that the big arena will be packed, and at fancy prices, and indicates that the general sluggish condition of the pugilistic market is not due to lack of public interest in the sport, but to failure of promoters to cater to the wants of the fans. New Yorkers are liberal patrons of boxing, but they want the best talent obtainable and until matchmakers take steps to improve the class of exhibitions there is no chance for a boom in local fistie affairs.

With regards to the Wells-Smith match it looks to me from what I have seen of the men that the American is outclassed. Of course, there is always an outside chance for a hard hitter of the Smith sort to put the haymaker over, but if Wells hasn't gone back since last summer he ought to have little to fear on that score. Smith relies entirely on his waiting power to win his battles and like all sluggers is forced to get himself in order to put the desired heft into his punches. Against the clever Wells his style should prove of little avail.

Wells is probably as hard a hitter as his opponent and his speed and cleverness should enable him to beat Smith to the punch. It's a sure thing that if he hits the Gunboat as hard as he punched Al Palzer the bout will end inside of a round or two. Few can stand the gaff as well as O'Rourke's giant.

Billy John, who is to preside at the match, has come in for considerable criticism lately for failing to enforce the rule calling for clean breaks in several contests, and I would advise the Bombardier to have a heart to heart talk with both Smith and the referee before beginning hostilities. The Gunboat has flagrantly violated this rule on more than one occasion and is not above resorting, I am sorry to say, to foul methods whenever he thinks he can get away with it. Naturally my sympathies are with the American but I want him to win fairly or not at all.

The proposed ruling by the New York boxing commission to compel club owners to refund admission money when advertised bouts are called off at the eleventh hour should have a clause inserted forcing boxers to live up to their contracts unless sick or disabled.

The Empire A. C. had a fairly attractive card arranged for last Wednesday night, but the Cross brothers, Phil and Leach, who were to play star parts left for New Orleans without warning and rather than offer a substitute program the promoters were forced to abandon the show entirely. The club owners are certainly entitled to legislation which will protect their investments to this extent.

Leach Cross boxes Joe Mandot in the Crescent City Monday and it looks as though he had undertaken a big job. In the dope he will be lucky to break even. Mandot is one of the topnotchers in the light-weight brigade and Cross has never shown his best from outside of New York. He is essentially a "home" boxer. Possibly the "shade" Gotham referees allow him has kept Leach in the foreground so long. He will have to step his fastest in the Mandot bout.

Frankie Burns the Jersey City boxer, has decided to stick to the bantam class in the future, and has issued challenges to John Coulon, Kid Williams and Eddie Campi. For a while Frankie elected to try his hand at the feather-weight limit, but found he had to give away too much weight to hold his own with the best boys, and that neither money nor glory is to be gained by boxing the dubs. Burns had his debut as a feather with Johnny Kilbane at one of the local clubs last summer and his boxing was very creditable considering the handicap in the matter of poundage.

The brilliant record of Kid Williams, topped by the recent defeat of Eddie Campi, the California star has drawn the attention of the critics from other ambitious bantams, and in the hunt for a worthy opponent for Coulon the Jersey boy has been overlooked lately. Yet is nly a few months back the experts agreed that Frankie was the legitimate and logical contender for the honors.

Burns and Coulon have met three times—twice in no-decision contests and last year in a twenty round bout at New Orleans. While the referee awarded the verdict to the champion in the New Orleans match, newspaper men differed with that official and asserted that Burns had earned a victory.

Frankie wants another match with Coulon, although if he can't get that right away will gladly take on Williams or Campi. And what is more he will not quarrel over the weight. Williams is growing and finds it harder and harder to reduce to 116, which is Coulon's limit, so this proposition ought to appeal. As the champion appears to be in no great haste to resume boxing and it is not at all likely he would choose either of these hard propositions to pull his "come-back", Burns and Williams might fight out in the good old-fashioned way the question of which is to have first crack at the title when the holder elects to do business.

CHATS WITH GREAT MEN OF THE CIVIL WAR

By Mrs. Gen. Pickett.

(The New York Evening World.)

GEN. WADE HAMPTON

Wade Hampton was an aristocrat by birth and education—a man of elegant presence, handsome, graceful, genial and courteous. He told me that one of the earliest lessons he received from his father was that of politeness.

"My son," he said, "Gen. Washington never allowed the humblest slave to surpass him in courtesy, and he always tried to take off his hat first."

Gen. Hampton owned a number of slaves and had inherited immense wealth, but lost it all by the war and was compelled, much to his grief, to take advantage of the bankrupt law.

"The South will never forget your devoted service to her cause," I said presently, when the conversation turned upon the Confederacy.

"Perhaps the greatest service I ever did for the Confederacy from my enlistment in South Carolina to my surrender with Johnston's army was when I captured about twenty-five hundred head of cattle, securing a square meal to at least a part of my people. In the beginning of the war your husband's term as a private was about as long as mine."

"I didn't know that you were ever a private," I answered, "but my General enlisted one day and was commissioned the next."

"Mine was a little longer. I volunteered as a private. But before my company was accepted I was given command of the brigade. Your General, too, knew what it was to be proud of his command. Mine was unique: composed of infantry, cavalry and artillery. And, as you know, it was called the Hampton Legion. In the battle of Seven Pines I lost almost half its numbers, so I know a little of what your General felt after Gettysburg."

"You knew, didn't you, that I received three wounds at Gettysburg? After that campaign I was put in command of cavalry under Stuart, checked Sheridan at Trevilian's Station in '64 and broke up Hunter's campaign by preventing Sheridan's junction with Hunter at Lynchburg. In one of those cavalry raids the great sorrow of my life came to me—one that I shall never get over—the loss of my boy, who was killed."

"I have lost a little boy and know that such a sorrow never passes out of life. It is a grief over which time has no power."

"Ah, madam," replied the General, "you have never lost a grown son, the idol of your heart, the apple of your eye. My only consolation is that I know that the cause for which he fell was a just one. I was opposed to secession, but knew only obedience to the sovereignty of the state, and felt that my own beautiful state was the noblest, grandest commonwealth of them all."

"I love South Carolina, General," I said, "but I love Virginia, the Old Dominion, more. And from babyhood my old black mammy used to tell me how our state antedated all others and was especially distinguished when 'de Lawd meked man en g'n him de Ole Dominion.'"

He smiled and said: "What a wonderful people they were! I loved them as slaves and shall try to meet them squarely as my own lawmakers."

Gen. Hampton had one of the most lovable natures. No word of bitterness or resentment was ever hurled at his adversaries. He never spoke of the war but with sorrowfulness; nor even talked of Sherman, who had burned Columbia, his home city.

"You were in command at Columbia," I said, "when Sherman burned it, were you not?"

"I try to think of that as an awful dream," he replied, "and I don't want to remember or record such acts as those of our army, our countrymen. And during my long service in congress I have tried to suppress all sectional hatreds."

The last time I saw the gentle-hearted old warrior was at the old Pennsylvania station in Washington when he held the position of commissioner of civil railways. I was going to fill a lecture engagement and his gracious benediction followed me.

This may sound ridiculous to those who did not see the match, but I think Mike missed the chance of a lifetime that December evening.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES.

Professor R. H. Tanner, of the department of Greek and Latin, has been invited to give a series of lectures before the Drama League on the organization and development of the Greek Drama.

The Campus Improvement Committee recently received a subscription from Miss Sue F. Ellis for the purchase of a tree or shrub to be planted in memory of John M. Ellis, one of the founders of the college. The committee expects to place its order for shrubs within a short time and any other friends who wish to contribute for the purchase of shrubbery, are requested to communicate with Mrs. T. J. Pitner.

Dr. Ozora S. Davis, President of the Chicago Theological Seminary, has been invited to address the students on the George L. Roberts Foundation. Mr. Davis will probably visit the college some time in April. The local Alumni and Alumnae of the college are planning to hold a banquet sometime in March.

President Rammelkamp and Professors Cole and Tanner have been requested by Sigma Pi and Phi Alpha to select the judges for the joint debate.

President Rammelkamp will attend a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the State Historical Library in Springfield on Thursday.

Dr. C. E. Black's article on the History of the Medical College has been reprinted in an attractive pamphlet with illustrations.

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS TO GIVE MILLIONS FOR MISSIONS

Local Sabbath School Superintendent is Notified of Big Plans—Sect Now Active in Sixty-Seven Countries.

One million dollars for missions during the next four years is the goal set for the Sabbath schools of the Seventh Day Adventists. This word has just been received by the Sabbath Day Adventist, Sabbath school here in a letter from Mrs. Flora Plummer of Washington, D. C., of the general Sabbath school department for that denomination. Mrs. Plummer writes as follows:

"Our summary for the last quarter is startling. It reached the splendid total of $60,728, the largest we have ever had. It makes the total for three-quarters, $165,135. When the returns are in for the last quarter, we shall go way ahead of our goal, which was $200,000 for the year 1912. We are a little tired of having to change our goal every few months, and also ashamed of its being buried beneath the surface so deep that we hate to dig it out. We have decided, therefore, to set a goal covering 1913 to 1916, of a million dollars from our Sabbath schools in four years. Pass on the news as soon as you like to your school, for I tell you we are counting on your state to help in this proposition. Judging from past reports, we shall not be disappointed."

In Foreign Fields.

The local superintendent has also heard from the governing body concerning the rapid growth of the work of Seventh Day Adventists in foreign fields. The letter says: "Doctor Riley Russell reports that God is working mightily in Korea. He himself baptized ninety-two persons last summer, organized two churches, and is now nearly ready for organization when he wrote. He says 'In the four years during which we have been here we have seen over 20,000 patients. The people know nothing of infection; but in the old heathen mind all disease is wind in the bones or some other part of the anatomy, and it must be let out. This is generally accomplished by means of the (chime) needles of various sizes and all possible degrees of uncleanness. One woman sent for us whom we found to have been stuck nearly 300 times in the face to let out the bad blood and wind, and it was only by diligent effort on our part that her life was saved, so severe was the infection. We are constantly struck with the similarity of the conditions with the time of Christ's ministry on earth. Leprosy is common in the south, cholera is present every summer, and the pest (Asiatic Plague) is always in hearing distance. The infant mortality is so high that the population is hardly holding its own with time.'"

Statistical Figures.

According to their last statistical reports Seventh Day Adventists are carrying on work in 67 countries, fifty of which have been entered during the past sixteen years. They are teaching the gospel orally in 80 different languages and dialects, and their publications are giving it in 71 different languages. In harmony with the gospel commission Seventh Day Adventists are pushing out rapidly into foreign fields, believing this to be one of the great world movements before Christ shall come. They claim that the use of all of their Sabbath school offerings for missions has brought inspirations to the schools. In harmony with Mrs. Plummer's request, the Sabbath school here has pledged its hearty co-operation during 1913.

BROOKLYN RECEPTION.

Rev Mr. and Mrs. Alkire kept open house to the young and middle aged married folks of Brooklyn congregation recently. About sixty responded to the invitations, and made up an unusually jolly company.

The programme was so arranged that not a dull moment showed up, and the evening passed all too quickly both for hosts and guests. About 10:30 refreshments were enjoyed, and more fun followed. At a late hour, the pastor made brief remarks and these were followed by the very appropriate song: "Bless be the tie that binds", and the guests were departed with pleasant memories of an unusually good time.

Edison's Latest Invention is on Display at BRADY BROS.'

The New Disc Phonographs and New Indestructible Disc Records are here. If you are Thinking of Buying a Phonograph or Talking Machine Be Sure to See and Hear This Marvelous Instrument Before You Take Another Step

It was not by accident that Mr Edison discovered the secret of recording and reproducing the overtones or tone colors of music. It is this discovery which makes the Edison Disc Phonograph a musical instrument and distinguishes it from talking Machines. To accomplish this Mr. Edison has spent an amount of money which would stagger any manufacturer of talking machines. He has spent years of his time--and his time is admitted to be more valuable than that of any other man--in pursuit of the ideals which are realized in the Edison Disc Phonograph.

We Want to Mention Just a Few Advantages This Invention Holds over all other Phonographs or Talking Machines.

The Edison Disc Phonograph is not a Talking Machine. It is an instrument that truly reproduces music with the over tones or tone colors. It is the greatest musical instrument in the world.

It requires no bothersome changing of needles. Instead, it has a permanent, genuine Diamond to take their place.

The records will positively not wear out. All other Discs wear out very quickly. Edison uses a new material.

Edison's records play almost twice as long as any other disc records.

Edison will have artists that will not sing or play for other competitive companies.

The tone quality is positively the clearest, most natural tone ever produced in a sound-producing instrument.

There are other important advantages too numerous to mention here.

For over six years Mr. Edison, the wizard and master mind, has been working on this invention and we are now in position to let the public hear and see what he has achieved.

All are welcome. Call and let us show you all about it and hear for the first time the Instrument that plays real music.

Comparison Proves the Certain Pre-eminence of

"The Paige 36."

$1,275

A Really
Remarkable Car
Is This

The Maximum
Product of Car Construction

The Price Seems Hardly Possible When Equipment and Quality are Considered.

It's a Revelation

This car is a revelation in motor car building. No other manufacturer is building such a car to sell at such a price. Maybe later, but not for this year.

That's why we say the Paige "36" in a next year's car.

For instance, does any other car in the Paige price field offer the famous Gray & Davis Electric Starting and Lighting System? Look it up. See if they do. The Paige "36" chassis was designed for the Gray & Davis System. It is part of the car.

Look at the Paige "36" clutch, the cork insert multiple disc clutch. See what other cars offer it. Look at the Paige "36" motor size and design—4 inch bore, 5 inch stroke, and every detail splendidly refined. Look at its wheel base, 116 inches—body size, big and roomy—wheel size, 34x4 inches—ignition, Bosch magneto.

The Gray & Davis System

The Gray & Davis system is found on the best cars ranging in price from $3,000 to $5,000. The high priced cars are featuring this system.

The Paige "36" was especially designed for the installation of the Gray & Davis System. It is built into the power plant—a part of it. Not merely added to it. The starter control is on the steering post. No simpler self starting system has ever been perfected. A woman can operate it with ease and assurance. No surer starting system ever will be perfected, for this equipment starts the Paiges "36" every time and starts it quickly.

In having left side drive and center control for the new "36" we are in step with the best of the high priced cars.

It is the logical drive and control. Control by simple gear shifting, ball pivoted rod.

Motor Superiority

This car stands all by itself as extra value. Other cars of equal value may be produced next year or the year after, but there is no other car now that gives so much in fine construction, size, power, quality of materials, and equipment for its price.

In the first place the Paige has become the leader in the medium price field primarily because of its motor. We don't believe as good a motor ever went into any other car selling at Paige prices.

The Paige "36" Motor is a further refinement and offers some marked advantages. It is a long stroke motor 4"x5". And it is powerful—36 actual horsepower—and quiet.

Our silent chain drive (enclosed and lubricated) for cam shaft, pump and generator, costs more than ordinary gears, but helps make this motor quiet—and easier running.

Judging by Comparison

Compare the car, through and through, with any car at a competing price. Compare not only design and equipment. We want you to compare materials and workmanship, too. We will be satisfied with your judgment when you've made the comparison.

Five types of body: Model Glenwood, 5 passenger touring car; Model Westbrook, 3-passenger roadster; Model Brighton, raceabout; Model Montrose, 4-passenger coupe; Model Maplehurst, 5-passenger sedan.

One of the largest producers of automobiles has said we cannot sell this Paige "36" for $1,275 without losing on every car.

Completely Equipped Garage Now Ready for Service.

Our Garage in the Calhoun Building, corner North East and East Court Streets, is now open and ready for work. The repair department adjoins the display room, where you can see "The Paige" any day. Skilled mechanics can take care of any auto trouble you may have and we can assure the public efficient service at reasonable prices.

PAIGE "25," $950.

The Paige "25" is a car of proved success. Even lacking some of the refinements and some of the equipment of this 1913 model, the Paige "25" last year established sensational success.

Careful construction, and real workmanship, made this car a leader in the thousand dollar field.

EZO FOR THE FEET

No Matter How Sore or Painful Your Feet, You Can Dance With Joy.

Third Lecturer Socialist Lyceum Course Monday, March 10, 8 p. m., Socialist Hall.

WILLIAM BESSEMER

"The Socialists believe the people of this country need Socialism, and are confident that they will want it as soon as they find out what it is," said William Bessemer, Socialist lyceum lecturer today.

"What confirms us in our belief," he continued, "is the fact that almost invariably as soon as an intelligent, unprejudiced person understands Socialism, he becomes a Socialist. And if the Socialist program be put to one hundred persons without labeling it, ninety-nine of them will accept it."

When asked why there are not more Socialists, he replied that the process of teaching the voters of a great country like America to vote for their own interests, is a slow one.

"The long reign of the old parties has been due to the ignorance and unconcern of the public. Most of the enormous slush funds of the capitalist party, comes from a corrupt source, and is used to bamboozle the American voters."

"All of the money the Socialist party spends is for the education of the people," said Mr. Bessemer. "And what is more, the money comes from the great body of the nation's toilers."

"The hope of the Socialist Party lies in education; the hope of the old parties, in ignorance and unenlightenment," he concluded, emphatically.

Mr. Bessemer will speak Monday evening at Socialist Hall, at 8 p. m. on "The Class Conflict."

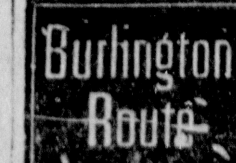

Big Opportunity to Profit on Increased Value of Government Irrigated Land

Time after time land in the great prosperous West has jumped from a nominal value to hundreds of dollars an acre when the first railroad tracks opened it up to the markets of the world. That is what is likely to happen in the Big Horn Basin of Wyoming.

Soil there under proper irrigation has for years proven itself capable of making farmers rich with bountiful crops of fruit, alfalfa, grain, sugar beets, garden truck, etc. All it needed was an outlet to market. Now the railroad is about to put a line straight into the heart of this wealthy territory. Those who get in before the track is laid will reap the big profits.

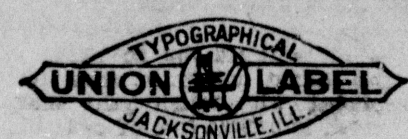

You can now file on an 80-acre government irrigated homestead at no cost except the actual cost of the water right—and you are given twelve years to pay for that. Light payments the first five years. No taxes for three years. So you can get started with very little capital. The climate is mild and healthful; neighbors, towns, churches and schools nearby.

This is one of the best chances I ever saw in all my experience. Write and ask anything you may want to know about it, and I will send you full information. Illustrated booklet, map, etc. My service is free. Send me a postal quick.

THE WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

FOREIGN INFLUENCE BRINGS DECLINES

HEAVINESS OF FOREIGN MARKETS IS REFLECTED HERE.

Virtual Failure of Prussian Government's Loan Offering Depressed European Markets—Other Unfavorable Considerations Aid Depression.

(By Associated Press) New York, March 8.—Securities were under constant pressure during the two hours of trading today. The heaviness of the foreign markets was reflected here in sharp declines among both investment and speculative agents. The virtual failure of the Prussian government's loan offering yesterday depressed European markets and sentimentally was an influence here. Bankers held that the tendency would be toward the maintenance of high rates abroad with the prospect of further calls upon this center.

The unfavorable effect of this influence on the stock market was heightened by other considerations. The recent indications that the drafting of a new plan for dissolution of the Harriman properties might be necessary have given rise to conjecture whether Union Pacific would fare so well under the plan first adopted. That stock was under heavy pressure and broke to 149%, its lowest price since 1908.

There were more rumors in circulation regarding the prospects for action by the new attorney general against large corporations, particularly tobacco and oil companies. In spite of the fact that there appeared to be no foundation for the rumors the stocks ran from 5 to 13 points. Standard Oil of New Jersey broke 25 points more. The bank statement revealed the expected cash loans of over $4,000,000 but there was a scaling down of loans of $23,000,000 and the slender margin of excess reserves reported last week was slightly increased.

International Money Markets. New York, March 8.—The focus of speculative interest shifted this week from domestic politics to international money markets account of the acute stringency in Berlin. Financial opinion does not believe that the influence of home politics in the market has passed but that it is held in abeyance. The interval under the call for extra session of congress holds this influence in suspense. The specific questions raised during the week had to do with the action of the attorney general toward the Union Pacific dissolution plan and toward the possible re-opening of the proceedings against the already dissolved industrial combinations as well as with probable new actions. The course to be taken by congress on the Pujo report is another subject of keen interest.

With these problems still in the future and fresh injection into the situation of Berlin's money troubles there arises new confusion in interpreting the real source of the market's depression. The perception grows of the ebbing of the wave of prosperity in Germany. Berlin's call on London and New York for gold dissipated the hope of the early relaxation of money markets. Reports are heard of possible action.

BEARISH SENTIMENT PULLS DOWN WHEAT

FEELING BASED ON EXPECTED REPORT ON FARM RESERVES.

Beside the idea of Liberal Supplies on the Farms, the Bulls Had to Contend With Big Receipts at Minneapolis and Duluth.

(By Associated Press) Chicago, March 8.—Wheat speculators gave evidence today of considerable bearish feeling based on a theory that very large farm reserves would be shown in the official report due Monday. Closing prices were unsettled, $\frac{1}{8}$ to $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ under last night. Corn finished $\frac{1}{8}$ to $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ down, and oats off $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ decline. Besides the idea of liberal supplies back on the farms, the bulls had to contend with big receipts at Minneapolis and Duluth and with notices that country points southwest were preparing to make increased shipments in consequence of the ideal outlook for crops. Experts who have gone over the best sections of Kansas since the disappearance of the snow report the plant well rooted and in no danger of high winds later.

Absence of foreign demand tended further to pull down wheat. The situation in this respect was made more emphatic by statements that much of the recent export business had been merely the filling out of old contracts. Primary arrivals of wheat were 769,000 bushels against 417,000 bushels a year ago; sea-board clearances of wheat and corn equalled 249,000 bushels. There was no snap to the buying side of corn. Weather reports suggested lighter feeding and better conditions for hauling. Purchasers also had misgivings in regard to the government report. Large receipts had a bearish effect on oats.

Chances of an increased run of hogs next week cut some figure in large transportation markets. Some of the selling came, however, from longs intent on releasing profits.

UNION BAPTIST CHURCH AT PISGAH.
The Women's Missionary society met Thursday with Mrs. William Beckman. Some came in wagons, some in buggies, but more fortunate were those who were in walking distance, for the roads were very rough. There were fourteen ladies and two gentlemen present. A quilt was in the frames, so the ladies were soon busy as bees, quilting and talking. The hostess had prepared an excellent dinner, which netted the society $4.75.

The following program was given in the afternoon:
Devotional—Mrs. Grace Beekman.
"Burma of Today"—Mrs. Euphia Wood.
Reading—Mrs. Ella Samples.
Roll call—Bible Quotation on Love.
Those present enjoyed the meeting very much and the society looks forward to the time when every woman in the church and neighborhood will unite with us in these meetings.

COMMUNICATION TO PARENTS OF HIGH SCHOOL CHILDREN

Letters Are to Be Issued From Time to Time on Topics of Vital Importance of School Work.

In order that parents may become better acquainted with what their children are doing in the high school, and of various phases of school life, which effects pupils and parents a series of letters will be sent out containing some valuable information. Principal W. A. Gore has just sent out the first communication which reads as follows:

This communication is the first of a series of letters we are going to write to the parents of high school children. In these letters, we will discuss, in brief, some topics of interest to parents and teachers, and hope to receive some comment from the parents. If you do not agree with us let us have the benefit of your criticism. If you agree with us tell us so; it will give us strength.

The new reports we are mailing to you for the first time are so different in appearance from the old ones that an explanation is due. We did not think that the old report accomplished its purpose. From a teacher's point of view, the value of a report to parents lies in soliciting the aid of parents of pupils doing unsatisfactory work. If this class cannot be reached, the reports are of little value. (The good take care of themselves). Grades were often changed. Many reports were signed by the pupils. Several reports were lost every month. We were not pleased with conditions, and as a consequence, the new report makes its appearance. The grades will be kept by the teachers as usual, grading on a basis of 100 per cent, 75 per cent being required for promotion. The grades sent to the parents will be made out from a parent's point of view. The parent wants to know what the pupil is doing, and figures often fail to tell the truth. Teachers are like other people and no two teachers grade the same. A "75" in one subject may be equal to an "85" in another subject. We will use two letters, A and D. "A" means the work is satisfactory and acceptable for credit. "D" means the work is deficient and not acceptable for credit. In all cases, where the work is not what it should be, whether passing or not passing, a written comment will follow stating what the teacher believes to be the cause.

This system of reports is new with us, but comes to us with the reputation of several years' successful experience in some of the large high schools. Since the system is new to us, please look kindly upon our mistakes, and we will promise you a better report next month. Tardiness has been discussed so much that we fear the patrons have grown tired of the subject. The members of our same old tardy gang have become calloused to our threats and come wandering in time after time as if they possessed an inherent right to keep the classes waiting until they get here. There is one subject which the magazines, newspapers, and public speakers will not let the teachers forget. This much discussed topic is "High School Failures." Poor teaching and courses of study are the excuses generally given. Do you know that 50 per cent of the people tardy in Jacksonville high school during the month of February failed in one or more subjects? More than 80 per cent of the people tardy three times or more are doing unsatisfactory work. Is there any connection between "tardiness" and "failures"? We mail letters to parents in nearly all cases of tardiness. We beg for your help.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES.

The Phi Nu Play, given last Monday night by Miss Parsons promises to be of unusual interest. The music which will be given by Director Swarthout with the reading is not an accompaniment or background of the recitation, but both the reading and the music combined make a harmonious whole.

Miss Kidder has had charge of the production of the high school play this year, and has proven very successful in her work.

The Phi Nu Play, given last Monday night, was a great success both artistically and financially. It will be repeated next Tuesday evening at the Christian church for the benefit of one of the missionary societies.

The Campaign which recently closed in Jacksonville has been worth a great deal to the College in every way. It has developed a great many friends, and in every way has been helpful to the school. The Campaign will be pushed vigorously into the outside territory.

The recital given Thursday afternoon by the pupils in the College of Music was especially high grade, and was enjoyed by a good size audience. Director Swarthout gave a description of the Strauss music, he will play for Miss Parsons Monday evening.

The Rev. Edwin W. Akers, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church at Crookston, Minn., has been visiting his daughter, Miss Miriam.

Representative E. T. Strubinger, of El Paso, is visiting his daughter Miss Eloise.

The College Council which was organized this last Wednesday is confidently expected to be a great help in fostering college spirit and many other ways benefitting the student organizations. Whoever is chosen president of the College Council will hold the highest office that is possible to be held by a student in the College. It naturally will bring to the front the highest possible grade of scholarship and develop strong leadership.

"COLDS"

Caused by Lowered Vital Resistance—What to do For This.

It is a well known fact that when a person is run-down, stomach out of order, or the system overloaded with waste matter, vital resistance is lowered and colds and coughs are easily contracted.

The safest and surest method we know to overcome this condition is by taking our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol. In the most natural manner Vinol tones up the digestive organs, promotes a hearty appetite, enriches the blood and creates strength for every organ in the body and as a specific for chronic coughs, colds and bronchial troubles Vinol is unexcelled.

Mr. Albert Porter of Richmond Hill, L. L., says: "All winter I had a bad cold and a cough which I could not get rid of, and was badly run down besides. Vinol was the one remedy which cured my cough and made me well in every way."

Try a bottle of Vinol on our offer to return your money if it fails to help you. Lee P. Allcott, Druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

The Keeley Cure for the Liquor Disease Has No Rivals as Far as Results Are Concerned

The Keeley Institute, Dwight, Ill.

Beautiful location. Delightful surroundings. Finest accommodations. Fireproof. Equipped with every modern convenience for comfort and safety.

The Keeley Cure Is Permanent

"This is the twentieth anniversary of my reincarnation and release from the bondage of the Demon Rum. Completely cured—the accursed appetite never to return."

This is a sample letter; we have many, many thousands like it. But we never publish names of patients, without their consent.

In a number of instances we are allowed to use names of men who have been cured, as references, and will be glad to do so, and convince inquirers of the truth of our claims, if desired.

We manufacture and sell Home Remedies which cure the Tobacco Habit and many forms of nervous troubles.

Full Information on Request

Booklets and full detailed information sent in sealed, plain envelope on request.

You can save that brother, relative, friend, employee from ruin, disgrace and death? Will you do it?

400,000 men have been saved by the Keeley treatment during the last 32 years! 400,000 families restored to happiness! New hope and joy and ambition brought into the lives of approximately 2,000,000 people! Isn't there someone you can help?

Drunkenness Is a Disease

Dr. Leslie E. Keeley proved that drunkenness is a true disease. It affects the nerve cells, producing in them a demand for alcoholic food. And it paralyzes the sufferer's will power and ability to resist.

Not one man in a thousand can stop immoderate drinking of his own accord. No more than he can cure himself of smallpox or brain fever. He must have help!

How the Keeley Treatment Cures

The Keeley remedies cure by removing the artificial alcoholic appetite from the nerve cells, and restoring them to their natural condition.

The Keeley medicines are nerve tonics. They cause no sickness or nausea. They are absolutely non-injurious and leave no ill effects of any kind.

The "craving" for drink is not the disease. It is simply the symptom of the disease, just as a cough is a symptom of some irritation or inflammation.

When the nerve cells are restored to their normal, healthy condition, the appetite for alcohol disappears. We also cure Opium, Morphine and other drug addictions. The drug is withdrawn gradually and there is no shock, collapse, prostration or sickness. Full particulars in plain, sealed envelope on request.

We have a Chicago office, Suite 806 Rector Building, 79 W. Monroe Street, where arrangements may be made.

GAVE SPLENDID ADDRESS ON PRONUNCIATION OF LATIN

Prof. T. H. Quigley Leader and Host of "The Classical Club" Last Night at Colonial Inn.

The members of The Classical Club of Jacksonville were guests last night of Prof. Thomas H. Quigley of Routt college at Colonial Inn. Prof. Quigley was the leader and presented a very able address on "The Pronunciation of Latin." He also provided for his guests a tempting spread and the entire evening was one of profit and pleasure.

Part of Prof. Quigley's address follows: "The pronunciation of Latin still hangs fire in educational circles, especially since all educators are not satisfied with the Roman or restored pronunciation. Of the five methods of pronouncing Latin—the Roman, the English, the Old English or Traditional, the Continental (a group of pronunciations), and the Italian—is there not one which all Latin teachers and scholars may adopt?"

"The Roman method, in general use in American high schools and colleges, is substantially the true pronunciation of Cicero and Caesar. In this method the matter of the quantity of vowels is a cardinal point, and yet pronunciation of the language with true quantitative accuracy is seldom attained, even by teachers of the language. If accuracy in getting the length of vowel sounds is so difficult, then Latin poetry cannot be read with the correctness necessary, without an expenditure of time out of all proportion to the thing gained. Latin poetry has been appreciated and is appreciated by many who have never read it with quantitative accuracy."

"If the Roman method is to be abandoned on account of difficulties which do not bring compensating advantage, what pronunciation is to be adopted? The English method, that of pronouncing vowels and consonants as they are in English, is harsh and unpleasant; it is a 'solitary' and 'barbarous' method which continental scholars will hardly understand, much less adopt. The French and German methods share too much the peculiarities of the languages whence they come. The Old English method, by which the vowels are pronounced as on the continent and the consonant as in English, has not the difficulty of the Roman nor the barbarity of the English. If the Roman method is to be abandoned, then this method which can be understood on the continent of Europe should be preferred to the harsher English."

"The Italian methods have all the advantages of the old English (except the consonantal sounds) and others as well, for it affords no ambiguities and is in more general use in the Catholic church, while no pronunciation has the stamp of official approval, to the exclusion of others, the Italian is the most favored. For Latin is a living language used continuously from Cicero's time, and as such, its pronunciation has changed just as all pronunciations change. The Italian pronunciation is heir to the Ciceroian. It will be as logical for us to restore Cicero's pronunciation as for Englishmen to restore the pronunciation of Shakespeare."

"The present interests of the Latin pupil may best be served by the adoption of the old English method; those of the Latin scholars, who seek uniformity in pronunciation, by the Italian."

SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES CALL UPON SECRETARY BRYAN

All Looking For Positions But Secretary Apparently Made No Direct Promises.

Washington, March 8.—A number of senators and representatives called upon Secretary Bryan today, some alone, but many accompanied by constituents, looking for positions. The secretary apparently made no direct promises but accorded to each applicant the privilege of filing his papers with an understanding that his claim should receive due consideration.

Towards the end of the day Prof. John Bassett Moore, of Columbia university, appeared by Mr. Bryan's own invitation. After a conference of nearly an hour the two went to the white house and talked with President Wilson. No announcement was made as to the result of these conferences, though Prof. Moore's name had been mentioned as a likely successor to Chandler Anderson, counsellor of the department of state.

Robert Lansing a member of the American side of the British pecuniary claims commission, was also a visitor to Mr. Bryan today. He had been mentioned for assistant secretary of state in place of Huntington Wilson.

Two weeks from today Easter will be present. FRANK BYRNS has a large assortment of Easter Neckwear and an early call will convince you of the styles and values.

DR. LUDWIG HEKTOEN ADDRESSES LARGE AUDIENCE AT HIGH SCHOOL

Speaks on Subject, "The Dangers From Diseased Milk"—Given Dinner at Peacock Inn.

"The Dangers From Diseased Milk" was the theme of an interesting lecture Saturday night at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium by Dr. Ludwig Hektoen of Rush Medical college, Chicago, who spoke under the auspices of the Morgan County Medical society and the Jacksonville Woman's college.

Dr. Hektoen was introduced by F. J. Heintz, who spoke of diseased milk as the cause of many epidemics formerly ascribed to impure water. Dr. Hektoen said that although isolated cases of tuberculosis and other kinds of disease arose from milk infection, the most prolific source of danger is from epidemics of typhoid, diphtheria, scarlet fever and epidemic sore throat. Infants and children are the greatest sufferers from these epidemics, which often break out with explosive suddenness.

First in Milk Men's Homes.

"Such epidemics are found at first in the homes of milk men only. Often the route of the carrier of the diseased milk may be traced by the spread of the disease. The homes of the well-to-do are often the first to suffer as it is people with fair incomes that are the greater users of milk. Among the poor the children are the greatest sufferers.

"Infection may be carried in several ways. The milk may be contaminated by the milker, whose hands or clothing may carry germs. The water supply may be contaminated. Milk cans washed by water from wells into which has percolated impure water. Surface or sewage may contaminate an entire milk supply.

"When the milk is taken to the creamery another danger arises. A little infected milk may be the cause of rendering the entire supply impure. Milk is often tested by tasting, the same person applying his lips to each lot in turn, infecting them all. Dirty bottling methods prevail in many creameries.

Healthy Persons Carry Germs.

"Recent medical investigation shows that a person in good health may carry germs of a disease from which he at one time has suffered. About 2 1/2 per cent of those suffering from typhoid fever become healthy carriers retaining indefinitely the power to infect others. Every such typhoid carrier is a potential danger to the community. A good example is the well known case of "Typhoid Mary", who was the cause of infecting 26 persons in 5 years. A sergeant in the best of health was responsible for a number of typhoid cases in a clean and hygienic soldiers' barracks.

"All cases of typhoid should be placed under medical surveillance until power to infect has passed away. No healthy carrier should be allowed to handle food or water or come in contact with his fellows any more than necessary. Cleanliness at all times should be their rule of life. Scarlet fever and epidemic sore throat may be the result of milk infection. A good example of the later disease being a sore throat epidemic in Chicago in December 1911 totalling 10,000 cases. The infection was traced to a certain bottling works, 85 per cent of the cases reported taking place in homes using their particular milk. The plant was located in a small town in which much sore throat was found. In the surrounding farms many cases of which disease were found and several 'healthy carriers' were found.

Must Be Pasteurized.

"To be free from infection milk must be well pasteurized, that is heated to 140 degrees Fahrenheit for 20 minutes. A method known as 'flash pasteurization' or a quick heating up to 160 degrees Fahrenheit is not adequate for sterilization."

In conclusion Dr. Hektoen spoke of the need for an awakening of public conscience and of much knowledge on the subject. Special recognition was shown to Dr. Hektoen this evening by a dinner given in his honor at the Peacock Inn at which were present several of the city's physicians and their wives, representatives of the Chamber of Commerce and members of the Education committee of the Woman's club.
